Hello there! 🧬 ✨

You've just experienced the cutting edge of science! At SkinJoyClinic, we've used Exosome therapy to send "biological text messages" to your cells, telling them to repair and rejuvenate.

🎮 The "Cellular Messenger" Quest 📱

The messengers are out and delivering their instructions. Let's make sure the signal stays clear:

- Quest 1: The Chill Zone 🧊 Keep your scalp/skin cool. Avoid hot showers, saunas, or intense exercise that makes you sweat for the first 48 hours.
- Quest 2: The Pure Protocol 🧴 Use only the post-care serum or gentle cleanser we recommended. Avoid any "active" skincare (Retinol, Vitamin C) for 3-5 days.
- Quest 3: The Sun Shield 🛡️ Exosome-treated areas are extra busy regenerating. Keep them out of direct sunlight to prevent any interference with the healing process.

🏆 Reward: Next-level skin texture and hair density that glows from the inside out!

🧠 Did You Know?

Exosomes are tiny vesicles that act like "smart messengers." They carry proteins and RNA to damaged cells, teaching them exactly how to fix themselves. It's the ultimate biological upgrade!

🛑 When to summon Team SkinJoy:

Expect some mild redness or "dewy" swelling. If you notice any unusual pain, persistent heat in the area, or signs of an allergic reaction, give us a call!
